Lacrosse Team ‘Practices’ Community Service Arizona Sting serves lunch at St. Vincent de Paul

Players from the Arizona Sting – the state’s professional Lacrosse team - will trade their Lacrosse Sticks for serving spoons at a special “team practice” behind the counter at St. Vincent de Paul’s Phoenix dining room. Four players from the Arizona Sting will volunteer on Wednesday, March 28th at the Henry Unger Dining Room in downtown Phoenix. Dan Dawson, Andy Secore, Mark Tinning and Brandon Atherton will greet guests and hustle to serve more than 900 meals to hungry families and individuals who count on St. Vincent de Paul.

“We’re a local team with supportive fans,” said Sting forward, Dan Dawson. “We want to support our community in return.”
