Scottsdale performance to benefit Katrina evacuees Join in support of SVdP's continuing relief efforts

News coverage of Hurricane Katrina may have diminished, but there are still people who struggle to rebuild their lives in Phoenix. Join in support of these survivors by attending Uprooted: The Katrina Project at the Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts on 21st at 8 p.m. Uprooted will feature performances from actors, dancers, musicians and poets who were affected by the devastation of Hurricane Katrina. For every $25 ticket sold, $30 will be donated to support local survivors thanks to donations from the Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts and a matching grant from the Legacy Foundation. A portion of the proceeds from this event will benefit St. Vincent de Paul's Katrina Program, which continues to assist Katrina families in Phoenix. For tickets and information call 480-994-ARTS.
