Gordon gives, gives and gives some more

Mayor set to serve lunch and make donations

PHOENIX — Mayor Phil Gordon has shown a lot of support for St. Vincent de Paul. And on Wednesday, he will show more support as he serves lunch and delivers some items he is donating to the non-profit organization.

The mayor is scheduled to serve lunch to the Valley's poor, hungry and homeless on Wednesday at St. Vincent de Paul's Henry Unger Memorial Dining Room (on the Human Services Campus) at 1075 W. Jackson Ave. The mayor is slated to serve from 11:15 a.m. until noon.

During his visit to the facility, the mayor will be donating 18 dozen hotdogs he won from Chicago's Mayor Daley after the Diamondbacks beat the Cubs during the MLB playoffs in October. Also, Gordon will be donating deodorant he received from Old Spice when they named Phoenix the "Sweatiest City."
