Creating Second Chances Tour of SVdP's Ozanam Manor gives firsthand look

Witness the miracles that take place at St. Vincent de Paul with a tour of Ozanam Manor - a shelter that strives to help the physically and mentally disabled and people age 50 and above move from homelessness to independence. The St. Vincent de Paul operated transitional shelter will host an open house Saturday, Feb. 10th from 9 a.m. to Noon at 1730 E. Monroe in Phoenix. Guests will meet some of the residents and find out what it takes to help someone start a new life. To RSVP, call 602-495-3050.
