St. Vincent de Paul to Host Annual Community Breakfast, 'Restoring Hope through Faith and Love.'

PHOENIX — The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will host its first annual breakfast on Thursday, November 6, 2008 at the JW Marriot Camelback Inn's Arizona Ballroom from 7:30 to 8:45 a.m. This breakfast raises funds to benefit the comprehensive services the Society provides to help the homeless and working poor throughout central and northern Arizona.

No other organization in the Valley provides so many services to so many people using so many volunteers. From hunger and homelessness to healthcare, St. Vincent de Paul reaches out to help those in need in the community while providing the community with opportunities to serve the economically disadvantaged.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, an international nonprofit organization, has served the homeless and working poor in Phoenix since 1946. It is the largest St. Vincent de Paul in the United States and provides help to individuals in need, regardless of race, origin, religion or gender.
