Chompie's, Sweet Tomatoes to feed the hungry

Second serving of charity set for Dine Out to Help Out

Phoenix — As the cost of living climbs, so do the number of guests seeking a nourishing meal at St. Vincent de Paul. To help ease hunger, Chompie's and Sweet Tomatoes are preparing two servings of charity for the Valley's homeless hunger and working poor.

On Monday, June 2, Chompie's and Sweet Tomatoes are providing and serving fresh bagels, cream cheese and muffins to homeless families and individuals from 7– 8:30 a.m. at St. Vincent de Paul's Henry Unger Dining Room, 1075 W. Jackson Ave.

On June 3, Hunger Awareness Day, both restaurants are donating a portion of their sales to St. Vincent de Paul. The annual Dine out to Help Out event is held on Hunger Awareness Day to support the many Arizona residents who go without enough to eat. By dining at one of these restaurants, you are helping St. Vincent de Paul prepare more than 3,500 meals each day for the hungry, homeless and working poor in central and northern Arizona.

Last year, a record number of guests showed up at the Phoenix dining room as Chompie's served fresh bagels and cream cheese to more than 600 guests on the day before Hunger Awareness Day. This year, Chompie's is returning with the fresh bagels and cream cheese and Sweet Tomatoes will be bringing fresh muffins.
